

Consumer Warning about Imitative/Illegal Products

EltaMD® Skin Care wholesales only to physicians and their associated skin care professionals. EltaMD Skin Care does not guarantee product authenticity or condition or accept any responsibility for product purchased from eBay, Amazon or other similar sites. EltaMD Skin Care strongly recommends consumers buy EltaMD products only through our approved network of physicians and skin care providers. For assistance locating an approved physician or skin care professional near you, please use our online Physician Locator.

While some sellers of EltaMD product on eBay, Amazon or other similar sites may have obtained their auction items in a legal manner, some of the EltaMD product sold via those sites may have been obtained illegally. The most obvious warning sign that product has been obtained illegally is a Seller with large quantities of product priced significantly below standard prices set by our authorized resellers.

To ensure you are receiving authentic, safe, quality product, please purchase EltaMD skin care products only through authorized physicians and their associated skin care professionals.
